THE EXAMINER,

A Sunday Paper,

ON POLITICS, LITERATURE, AND THE FINE ARTS,

FOR THE YEAR 1833.

PARTY IS THE MADNESS OF MANY FOR THE GAIN OF A FEW.—POPE.

LONDON:

PRINTED FOR A. FONBLANQUE, BY GEORGE LAPHAM, AND PUBLISHED BY HIM AT THE EXAMINER OFFICE, 5, WELLINGTON STREET, STRAND.

1833.

INDEX.

Accidents, Dreadful, 8c.—Murder at Birmingham—Sudden death of Colonel Lewis, R.M.—Death of Lewis Roberts—Suicide for love, 12. Murder at East Retford—Fire at Hoxton—Fire at Leith—The wife of two husbands, 13. Five lads drowned—Inquests—Heroic conduct of Miss Biden—Novel rat-trap—Earthquake at Swansea, 29. Conflagration at Liverpool, 41. Inquests, 42. Murder at Clifton—Desperate attack on the police—Absence of mind—Singular delusion of a robbery, 44. Death by starvation—Fire and loss of life in Hatton Garden, 56. Explosion of the Dartford powder-mills—Inquests—Shocking case of starvation, 57. Dreadful tragedy at Northampton—Extraordinary investigation—Effects of drunkenness—Discovery of a murder twenty-four years ago—Diabolical conduct, 69.—Dreadful tragedy at Aberdeen—Conflict with poachers, two persons killed, 76. Threatening the Queen's life, 90. Death of a member of Mr. Geo. Keller—A fearful fall—The locality of cowardice—Attempted murder by a maniac—Conduct of Sailor's Wells, 93. The convict Attwell, 94. Apprehension of gamblers, 108. Death by fright, 109. The cowardly Greek—Summer amusement—A dangerous adventure, 120. Administration of land—Robbery of a police magistrate—Attempted murder and suicide near Dumfries—Novel punishment, 125. Extraordinary accident at Eldon—Great income—Suicide—Destruction of the last [illegible] steamer on the late gales, 142. Accident at Sea [illegible]—Burnt defence—Extraordinary [illegible] in London to Fitzwilliam, 157. Sudden death of an City [illegible], 173. Sudden accident in Hyde Park—Sudden death of a young lady, 185. Sale of a wife—Cruelty to animals—Horrible cruelty in the court at York, 190. Extraordinary case—Unusual racing, remarkable fire, 201. Death from inclemency of the weather, 205. Confession of Clayton—Absconding of a tax-collector—Opportunity—Remarkable suicide, 222. Suicide of a swindler—Murder near Lisson, Hadlow, 237. Accident to Mr. Hilmarse—Destitution—Detention of a young defaulter—Robberies in the Land Chancellor's court—Astonishing investigation, 252. Melancholy suicide, 254. How to get married—Important contract of constituted authorities, 268. The swindler Clater—Attack on the keepers of British zoo—Five hundred persons killed—Female swindling at Dover—Children at the Millbank penitentiary—Accidental poisoning, 286. Loss of the Hibernia—Murder by a soldier at Salford—Inquests—Suicide in Hyde Park, 295. The [illegible] Hearing for a libel—Inquest on the Rev. Thomas Layton—Duel at Exeter, 318, 332. Inquest on Baker Cuff, 331. Sudden death in Covent Garden theatre—Sounds of a West India merchant, 333, 348. Fire and loss of life in Portsquare, 344, 361. The Hon. W. L. Gower, 348. Discovery of a robber's case near Lincoln—Inquestion of the Hackney mail-coach—Fatal precipitate conduct—Handy assault on a lady at Kensington, 360. Death of a [illegible], 361. Drowning for man [illegible], 364. Loss of the Cape steamer—Sounds, 367. Riot and destruction of the play at Gravesend—Horrible—[illegible] 371. Suicide, 372. Attempted murder and suicide at Hammersmith, 373. Indecency—Accident on the river—Suicide in Greenwich Park—Suicide of a wife, 385. Fire and death [illegible]—The Bishop [illegible] Dublin from Egypt, 391—Accident to Mr. Kirby—Accident at Vauxhall, 392. Alleged murder of a witness by the police, 401. [illegible] 402. Hungry [illegible]—Fire at sea—A new way of making a man, 403. Dangerous fire at Liverpool—Fatal and fearful collision in a tunnel, 408. Fatal duels—Fire in Queen's—Murder of a boy in the Surrey pastures, 420. Fire at Queen's Coopers—Accident at the Surrey Zoological gardens—Robbery at Hampstead, 426. Prevention of a robbery by a cat—Sale of a wife—Suicide of a lunatic—Dreadful [illegible] 428. Clothing, 432. Fall of two houses on Great Surrey [illegible] 437, 448. Suicide of the Kingsbridge, 452. Extraordinary [illegible] a [illegible]—Fire Sale of the Kent at Wapping Lock, 464. Extraordinary [illegible]—Sudden death in the London Hospital, 465. Fatal cross [illegible] Paris—Inquest on the late Mr. Hunter, 476. Suicide of a [illegible] 477. Extraordinary [illegible] 478. The Rev. [illegible] 479. Fire in Sussex—Inquest on the late Mr. Hunter, 480. Fire in Sussex—Inquest on the late Mr. Hunter, 481. Fire in Sussex—Inquest on the late Mr. Hunter, 482. Fire in Sussex—Inquest on the late Mr. Hunter,

INDEX.

Accidents, Offences, &c.—Murder at Birmingham—Sudden death of General Lewis, R.M.—Death of Lewis Roberts—Suicide for love, 12. Murder at East Retford—Fire at Boughton—Fire at Leith—The wife of two husbands, 13. Five lads drowned—Inquests—Heroic conduct of Miss Eden—Novel rat-trap—Earthquake at Swansea, 29. Conflagration at Liverpool, 41. Inquests, 43. Murder at Clifton—Desperate attacks on the police—Absence of mind—Singular detection of a robbery, 44. Death by starvation—Fire and loss of life in Hatton Garden, 58. Explosion of the Dartford powder-mills—Inquests—Shocking case of starvation, 59. Domestic tragedy at Northfleet—Extraordinary investigation—Effects of drunkenness—Discovery of a murder twenty-four years ago—Diabolical conduct, 60.—Domestic tragedy at Northfleet—Conflict with poachers: two keepers shot, 76. Threatening the king's life, 90, 108. Heroic conduct of Mr. Geo. Keiller—A fainting fit—The ferocity of cowardice—Attempted murder by a maniac—Accident at Sadler's Wells, 93. The convict Attrell, 94. Apprehension of gamesters, 108. Death by fright, 109. The chevalier Brown—Newmarket amusement—A hungry adventurer, 124. Adulteration of snuff—Robbery of a police magistrate—Attempted murder and suicide near Dumfries—Novel punishment, 125. Extraordinary accident at Eltham—Child murder—Suicides—Destruction of life and property in the late gales, 140. Accident of Miss Smithson at Paris—Accidents at the City theatre—Fire in London-st. Fitzroy-square, 157. Heroic defence—Charge of poisoning—The murder of Robert Pavior—Singular case of suicide, 173. Shocking accident in Edinburgh—Fraud on the parish pension list, 188. Sale of a wife—Omnibus accident—Robbery in the court at York, 189. Extraordinary case—Omnibus racing, manslaughter, 204. Death from inclemency of the weather, 205. Confession of Clayton—Absconding of a tax-collector—Opportunity—Remarkable suicide, 222. Suicide of a swindler—Murder near Luton, Bedfordshire, 237. Accident to Mr. Ballantine—Destitution—Detection of a daring depredator—Robberies in the Lord Chancellor's court—Extraordinary investigation, 253. Melancholy suicide, 254. How to get married—Ignorant contempt of constituted authorities, 268. The swindler Coster—Attack on the keepers of Bristol gaol—Five hundred persons killed—Female swindling at Dover—Cholera at the Millbank penitentiary—Accidental poisoning, 284. Loss of the Hibernia—Murder by a soldier at Salford—Death by a poisonous herb—Suicide in Hyde Park, 285. The murder at Chelsea, 301. Hanging for a livelihood—Inquest on the Rev. Thomas Layton—Duel at Exeter, 318, 333. Inquest on Robert Cully, 331. Sudden death in Covent Garden theatre—Suicide of a West India merchant, 333, 348. Fire and loss of life in Panton-square, 348, 365. The Hon. W. L. Gower, 349. Discovery of a robber's cave near Lincoln—Destruction of the Benlomond steam-packet—Fatal pugilistic encounter—Daring attempt at burglary at Manchester, 365. Death of a female sailor—Effects of high winds, 381. Distressing fire near Exeter, 382. Loss of the Clyde steamer—Suicide, 397. Riot and destruction of the pier at Gravesend—Housebreaking—"All in the family," 413. Attempted murder and suicide at Hammersmith, 429. Infanticide—Accident on the river—Suicide in Greenwich Park—Sale of a wife, 429. "Who shall decide?"—Mr. Bankes's case—Deaths from fighting, 443—Accident to Mr. Keeley—Accident at Vauxhall, 458. Alleged murder of a waterman by the police, 461, 476. Highway robberies in Surrey—Death of Dr. Henry Percy—Female courage, 476. Fire at sea—A new way of making a man, 493. Destructive fire at Liverpool—Filial and fraternal affection in a convict, 509. Fatal frolic—Fire in Sussex—Murder of a boy in the potteries, 525. Fire in Queen-st. Cheapside—Accident at the Surrey Zoological gardens—Robberies at Ramsgate, 540. Prevention of a robbery by a cat—Sale of a wife—Suicide of a trooper—Runaway debtors, 556. Cholera, 557. Fall of two houses on Great Saffron-hill, 572, 589. Shipwreck of the Amphitrite, 572. Embezzlement by a barrister's clerk—The fire in Monmouth-st. 573. The Ardincaple steam packet—Loss of the Earl of Wemyss Leith smack, 588. Diabolical transaction—An old trick—Remarkable cure—Daring highway robbery in Surrey—Alleged neglect at the London Hospital, 589. Accidental hanging, 590. Fatal coach accident—Loss of the ship Dorothy, 604. Singular case of homicide in Paris—An extraordinary character—Inquest on the men killed in the Red Soil mine—A ship run down by a steamer—Incendiarism in Durham and Northumberland, 605. Refusal of a medical man to give evidence—Suicide of a domestic of the Duke of Cumberland's household—Suicides from jealousy—A real Irish beggar—Disgraceful outrage by an operative—Incendiary fires, 621. Attempted assassination of Col. Lyster, at Brussels, 631. Accident at the King's College—Extraordinary suicide, 635. Manslaughter by an overlooker—Reverse of fortune—Tyranny by working men—Reported deliberate murder by a soldier—Monkey hunt—Georgia law—Brutal assault by a factory operative on a factory child—Extraordinary case of starvation, 652. The Earl of Wemyss smack—Committal of Mr. Reeve to Norwich Castle on a second charge, 667. Loss of the City of Waterford steam vessel—Attack on two ladies by a monkey—Murder and attempted suicide at Mansfield—Caution to parents—Juries, 668. Suicide of a dancing-master, 684. Narrow escape—Public executions—A pledge—Death of a somnambulist—A fine young peasant—Attempted suicide by Mr. Tuffnell, 685. Attempted incendiarism near Datchett—Conflict of Major Lardy with a robber, 699. Attempted murder at Manchester, 700. Death of one of Capt. Ross's crew, 715. The Etonians—Disgraceful affair, 716. A robber shot—Accidents through the fog, 732. Tragical event at Barnes—The murder by poisoning at Plumstead—Inquest on Mr. W. Tuffnell, 733. Attempted suicide of Severin Dumas, the French usher—Suicide of a well-known character—The rector and his gammon of bacon—Assault on the proprietor of the Newcastle journal, 748. The murder at Plumstead—Elopement, 749. Providential escape, 762. Inquest on Mrs. Bedwell—Extensive robbery and singular recovery of the property—Suicide of an alderman, 763. Manslaughter by a factory steward, 764. Riot at Cambridge—Meditated escape from Newgate—Suicide at the Danish minister's residence—The late gales—Conviction of the crew of a steamer for smuggling, 779. Extensive robbery of silver plate, 780. Hammersmith ghost, 793. Destruction of Newbrook house by fire—Novel method of defeating an act of parliament—Escape of prisoners in Scotland—Sudden death on the tread-mill—The duke of Wellington's coachman—Singular elopement—Incendiarism—Execution of an incendiary—Murder near Northwich, 794, 810. A man shot by a policeman—Miraculous escape—Early intemperance, 795. Suicide—A parochial defaulter—Death by poison, 810. Incendiarism—Loss of the Lord Blayney steam vessel, 811. Abstraction of money from the Navy Pay Office chest, 825. Murder of Mary Evans—Suicide of a clerk in the India-house—Another shipwreck at Boulogne—Wreck of a steam vessel, 828.

Aldersgate-street dispensary, 712.
Arctic land expedition, 681.
Assessed taxes, 40, 57, 91, 601, 633, 650, 663, 679, 693, 745, 793.

Ballot, meetings in favour of, 9, 55.
Ballot, the, 38,55.
Bank meetings, 524.
Bank charter, 347.
Banks (new joint stock) in London, 825.
Barnes, Mr. case of, 617, 662.
Beer shops, 411.
Bentham, Jeremy, 267.
Bentham, selections from, 678, 727.
Birmingham, the anti-ministerial meeting at, 329.
Bishop of London versus the Apollonicon, 506.
Black versus white civilization, 186.
Blacker, Col., removed from the commission of the peace in Ireland, 711.
Bourbon, honour and fraternal affection, 137.
Brighton, the chain pier at, 682.
Brougham, Lord, 73.
Burdett, Sir Francis, letter to, 139.

Calthorpe-street jury, 729.
Canal travelling, 233.
Cartwright club dinner, 473.
Cholera, the, 25, 538.
Church patronage, 808.
Church rates, 346, 426, 538, 602, 792, 825.
City club house, 793.
Civic elections, 523, 807, 822.
Club, new political, 792.
Coldbath fields meeting, 314, 329.
Common sergeant, the office of, 411.
Corn, price of, in England and France compared, 793.
Corporation inquiry, city of London, 805.
Court of common council and the city police, 297.
Court of common council, 394.
Court of common council: an example of the administration of justice by a popular corporation, 647.
Coventry election, 233.
Cripplegate ward, 10.
Crosbie, Sir Edward, court martial upon, 186.

Deccan prize money, 808.
Detrosier, Mr., 10.
Durham, Lord, retirement of, 170.
Durham, Lord, and Mr. Ward, 632, 649.
Durham, Lord, and the Durham Advertiser, 663.
Durham, Lord, and the reform bill, 680.
Durham, Lord, and his slanderers, 713, 808.

East India Company, 196, 808.
Education, self-supporting, 38. Lessons for the Irish national schools, 826
Education, 91.
Elections, general, 10.
Evans, Col. and the new police, 538.
Executions.—Wm. Johnson, for the murder at Enfield—John Hallahan, for robbing—Wren, for stack-burning, 28. Thos. Attrell, for extorting money, 109. Carter, for arson, 188. Charlotte Long and Thos. Gaskins, for incendiarism, 573.

Factory commission, 282, 426.
Factory inspectors, 712, 808.
Ferrall, Mr., 132.
Fine Arts.—British Institution, 84, 101, 117, 133, 166, 214. Water Colour Exhibition, Old Bond-street, 277. Royal Academy, 277, 294, 309, 326. Exhibition of the Society of Painters in Water Colours, Pall-mall East, 294. Society of British Artists, 309. National Gallery, 342. Sculpture by Mr. Baily, 742.
Engravings.—Illustrations to "Heath's Book of Beauty," 22, 820. The Widow, 54. Gallery of Portraits, 149, 342, 820. Illustrations of the Bible, by John Martin, 166. Northcote's Fables, 294. G. Cruickshank's Sunday in London, 342. Retzsch's Outlines to Schiller, 549. The Gallery of the Graces, 742. Turner's Annual Tour for 1834—The Landscape Album—Friendship's Offering—The Landscape Annual, 806.
Fisheries, the Channel, 727.

Footpath stopping, 283.
Foster, Mr., case of, 693, 824.
Fourth estate, 9.
Foreign Intelligence.—America—President's message, 7. Proclamation regarding South Carolina, 24, 56, 169. Proclamation of Gen. Hayne, 72. Message to Congress, 107. Inaugural address of Gen. Jackson, 218.
Antwerp—Progress of the siege, 8, 24. Navigation of the Scheldt, 40.
East Indies—Summary of Indian news, 552. Prevalence of Cholera, 824.
Egypt, 57. Conquests of the Pacha of Egypt, 169, 218. Mehemet Ali and Admiral Roussin, 232. Letter of Ibrahim Pacha, 441.
France—Death of Charles Lameth, 8. The Duchess de Berri's marriage, 137, 155, 233. The pistol plot, 169, 186. National subscription for M. Lafitte, 201. Prorogation of the Chamber of Peers, 266. The session of the French Chambers, 281. Proceedings of the Chamber of Deputies, 313. Commercial mission of Messrs. Villiers and Bowring, 425. Summary of the Sessions of the French Chambers, 457. The Quarterly Review on French affairs, 553. Present state of the French colonies, 601. King's speech on opening the Chambers, 823, 824.
Germany—Attempted insurrection at Frankfort, 232, 361.
Holland—Removal of the embargo, 345.
Jamaica—Dissolution of the House of Assembly by Lord Mulgrave, 73.
Portugal—Progress of the Constitutionalists, 38, 89, 121, 186, 282, 345, 409, 441, 473, 490, 551, 711, 729, 823. Admiral Sartorius and Sir J. Doyle, 219, 233, 824. Defeat and capture of the Miguelite fleet, 457. Appointment of Mr. G. Villiers, 506. Intercepted official correspondence of the Miguelites, 522, 538, 553, 616, 631. Attack on Lisbon by the Miguelites, 600. Attack by the Miguelites at Alcacer de Sal, 744.
Prussia—The Duke of Cumberland and Lord Minto, 807.
Russia—Russian catechism, 551, 553. Anticipations of an European war against Russia, 807.
Spain—The new ministry, 25, 40, 218. Death of the king, 630, 648. The will of the king, 664. Disarming of the royalist volunteers at Madrid, 711, 728. Proclamation of Gen. Castagnon, 791. Escape of Don Carlos into Portugal, 807.
Sweden—Address of the Storthing to the King, 630.
Turkey—Progress of the Pacha of Egypt, 72, 313. Arrival of the Russian troops in Constantinople, 361.

Government annuities, 809.
Gravesend pier bill, 346.
Gravesend pier, 442, 681.
Grote, Mr., 9.

Harvey, Mr. D. W., 729, 745, 776, 809.
Hauser, Casper, 697, 824.
Hetherington, Mr., 25.
Hill, Mr., his visit to Hull, 697.
House and window taxes, 267, 282, 297, 314, 362, 760.

Incendiarism, 41, 605, 794.
Ireland, 39. Extracts from evidence before the select committee, 116.
Irving, Rev. Edward, 187.

Junius Redivivus, Letters from, 35, 214, 532, 661.
Justice, architectural obstructions to the administration of, 73.

Kean, Edmund, death of, 310.
Key, Sir John, 665.
Knowledge, diffusion of, amongst the people, 743, 758.
Knowlys, the Recorder, 394.

Labour rate, 170.
Labour rate bill, 378, 505.
Lambeth parochial meeting, 234.
Laurie, Sir Peter, dinner to, 712.
Law for the rich and law for the poor, 10, 755.
Law.—Mr. H. J. Wallack, insolvent—The Enfield murder, 10, 27. Indictment of a gaming-house—Stipendiary chairman, 11. Greenwood v. Taylor, 27. Sale of forged stamps—Michael Purcell tried for manslaughter, 28. Exparte Cobbett—Wrathall v. Brewer—Reid v. Elliott, 42. The King v. Colburn—The King v. Shackell—Richard Harris for stealing, 58. The King v. Chalk and others—Rind v. Davies—Thomas Duigan, insolvent, 74. Vivian v. Williams and Hiburn, 92. Watts v. Colburn—Staley v. Hunt—Lady Briscow for libel, 108. Blackwood's Magazine: Pringle v. Cadell—Juvenile thieves, 123. Count de Pfaffenhoffen v. Charles X., 124. Breach of promise of marriage: Hooper v. Allies—A figurative witness, 139. Wm. Farmer tried for the murder of Sarah Parker—Bowler v. Johnston—Bayntun v. Cattle—Curious case of larceny—John Donnellan tried for rape, 172. Wm. Clayton for murder, 188. The riots at Clithero—Dawes v. Canning—The Quadrant gamblers, 221. Nuneaton rioters—John Case convicted of assault—Murder of Robert Pavior, 205. N. P. Folgar tried for shooting at Wm. Mellish, Esq.—Coster and Smith for uttering forged notes—Searle and Hardy for assaulting a constable, 252. Douglas v. Thresher, 283. Milton oyster grounds: Wickham v. South—The King v. C. B. Wall, Esq., M.P., 300, 317. Commission of lunacy, 300. The King v. Donlan and Lord Teynham, 317, 333, 347, 364. An attempt to starve into conviction, 317. In re the inquest on Robert Cully, 347. A grand juryman fined for contempt of court, 347. Exparte the Earl of Glengall, 364. Exparte W. J. Bankes, Esq., M.P., 381. The King v. Clayton and others, 395. Cunningham v. Fonblanque, 396, 714, 746. Hunt v. Ratcliffe and another—Hunt v. Harvey and others, 396. Libel on Wm. Cobbett, M.P., 410. The Duke of Cumberland, v. Phillips, 412. Trial of George Furzey, 428, 442. A grand juror fined—Parochial malversation, 428. James Burke and Richard Curtis tried for manslaughter, 442. Another blunder, 443. Church of England Christian forbearance and humanity, 460. M'Culloch and Longman v. Macardy—Commission of lunacy—Trial of Wm. Courtenay for perjury—Lambert v. Hanham—Courage of the church militant, 475. The late duel—Bond v. Tremaine—Wroots v. Kingsley, 493. The King v. Holden and Fiske, 507. Redit v. Lucock—Highway robbery—The King v. Cohen—The King v. Russell, 508. Special general commission at the Old Bailey to retry prisoners irregularly convicted at Middlesex sessions, 525. A candidate for transportation—Election of chairman of Middlesex sessions, 587. Arson: the King v. Charlotte Long—Atrocious assault, 539. Mr. Honner, comedian, insolvent, 571. "The young marquis"—Trial of Charles Reynolds for shooting at Sarah Parry—New remedy for the cholera, 571. Ann Vickers tried for perjury—Henry Palmer for receiving stolen bills of exchange, 666. Trial of Thomas Cox Savory—Charge of libel—A man his own counsel—False scales, 683. Trial of agricultural rioters, 698. The King v. Bankes, Esq.—Assessed taxes—A lost juror: Piggott v. Long, 714. Military morality displayed in a trial for perjury—Exparte the Earl of Durham, 731, 746. The King v. Hart—The King v. Cohen—The King v. Woolcombe—Monopoly of brewers—Exparte Reeve, Esq., 731. Exparte Scales—Exparte the Rev. F. B. Perkins—The King v. Brigstock, 746. The King v. Russell—Pennell v. Lawson—St. James's Parish v. The Earl of Burlington, 746. Prosecution against the Pilot newspaper, 746, 762. Privilege from arrest—The loss of the Earl of Wemyss—Henry Berthold convicted of felony, 761. John Minter Hart, 761, 778. Winchester and Briggs v. The proprietors of the True Sun, 775. The King v. W. J. Bankes, Esq., M.P. and James Flower—Hunt v. Ager and others—Dicas v. Lord Brougham, 777. Housebreaking, 778. Wansell v. Phillips, Bart.—Liability of minors, 793. The Plumstead murder, 793, 810. Commission of lunacy on Miss Rebecca Johnson, 808. Rumsey v. Nicholson—Furzey v. Clement, 809. Attempt of a labourer to drown his own child, 810. The Attorney-General v. Shore—Bequest of 10,000l. to the Blind Asylum, 826. Louisa Bernard for assaulting her husband, 827.
Leeds, representation of, 809.
Libel law, 219, 394.
Literary Examiner.—Illustrations of Political Economy, 5, 566, 677. The Life of a Sailor—The Invisible Gentleman—Oxford; Academical Abuses—Lord Byron and Mr. Rogers, 21. The Magazines, 22. Sense and Sensibility—The Buccaneer—The Library of Romance and the Ghost Hunter, 37. The Recollections of a Chaperon, 52. Selections from the Choric Poetry of the Greek Dramatic Writers—Three Years in North America, 68. Mr. Leigh Hunt, 69. Whychcotte of St. John's—Miserrimus, 84. Specimens of Ancient Furniture—The Waverley Anecdotes—Lord Brougham's Law Reforms, 100. History of the American Theatre, 117. Six Weeks on the Loire—Schinderhannes, 132. Life of Adam Clarke, 149. Deloraine—The Monthly Repository, 164, 229, 372, 567, 788. Faust, a Dramatic Poem, 180. The Sketch Book of Fashion, 195. Lives of Eminent Missionaries—Alphabet of Botany, 214. The Entomological Magazine, 229. Tours in Upper India—Foreign Quarterly Review—The Puffing System, 245. Records of a Voyage to the Western Coast of Africa, 277. Memoirs of the Rev. Joseph Priestley, LL.D. The Wondrous Tale of Alroy, 293. Godolphin, 309. Narrative of a Residence at the Court of London, 325. Saggio di Poesie Italiane, scelte da Carlo Beolchi, LL.D., 326. The Simple Story—Nature and Art, 340. The Parish, by Harriet Martineau, 341. Characteristics of Goethe, 342. Transatlantic Sketches—Andrew the Savoyard—Sonnets—Transactions of the Royal Geological Society of Cornwall, 356. Astronomy and General Physics—My Imprisonments: Memoirs of Silvio Pellico, 357. The Parson's Daughter, 372. Rise and Fall of the Irish Nation, 389. Letters from the Hon. Horace Walpole to Sir Horace Mann, 405. The Infirmities of Genius illustrated, 421. Character; or, Jew and Gentile, 452. Nubia and Abyssinia, —Readings in Poetry, 468. Memoirs of Mrs. Inchbald—Mr. Bulwer and the New Monthly Magazine, 485. Dramatic Scenes from Real Life—The Foreign Quarterly Review, 500. Sharpe's Peerage, 516. Notre Dame, 533. The Garreteers, 567. Montague; or, Is this Religion, 582. Sketches of Obscure Poets—Hints on the foundation of Joint Stock Banks—Chatsworth, the Patrician, 599. On the happiness resulting to the Italians from the Austrian Government—Life of Adam Clarke, 614. Stories of Waterloo, 615. England and the English, 628, 645. A Description of the Close Rolls in the Tower of London, 661. Fisher's Drawing-room Scrap Book, 676. Tom Cringle's Log, 691. A Genealogical History of the Commoners of Great Britain and Ireland, 692. Excursion in India, 708. The Oriental Annual, 708. England and America, 725. Ueber Maschinen und Fabrikenwesen, von Charles Babbage, &c. &c.—Crabbe, 726. The Colonies, &c., by Col. Charles James Napier, C.B., 740. The Keepsake for 1834, 741. Peter Simple, 755. Love and Pride, 772. Stories of the Study, 805. Hood's Comic Annual, 806. Lives and Exploits of English Highwaymen, &c., 818. A Yankee Clock Pedler, 819.
London, decay of, 38.
London University, 137, 155, 458, 506.
Lord Mayor, election of, 631.
Lushington, Dr., and his constituents, 745, 793.

Magazines, the, 70.
Manifestation of "the Spirit" in Park Chapel, Chelsea, 583.
Marylebone election, 187.
Marylebone parochial meeting, 233.
Mechanics' Institution (London), 122, 361, 411.
Microscope of Holland and Joyce, 806.
Microsm and microscopic exhibition, 821.
Music.—Music of nature—Weippert's echo of the band's quadrilles, 70. Hymn of the Polish exiles, 101. Original music, consisting of songs —The Parting, 165. The Giulianiad, 166, 709. Mignon's song, "When thou wert there," 245. Characteristic Fantasia for the pianoforte, 501.
Musical grievances, 708.

Natural philosophy, chair of, in Edinburgh, 42.
Newspaper stamp duties, 25.
Newsvenders, meeting of, on the law of libel, 679, 776, 808.

Norwich constituency, the corrupters of, 9.
Norwich election, cooping, 55.
NOTABILIA.—A spoiled anecdote of Bentham—An extensive inquiry—Oxalis Crenata—Newspapers in America—Effect of taxes upon manufactures—The improvement of the people—The box—Subterranean professions—Dr. Paley, 27. A radical—Clocks—The workman and his work—Fire-engines in America—Excise on paper—Peel's law reform—Trade in opinions, 39. Peers of the realm—Women—Proper mode of studying foreign nations—France, 40. Sir W. Scott on chivalry—Genius of an auctioneer—The feud between conflicting half-truths, 58. Gullibility, 73. The arts—An unexpected event in the history of a clergyman—American politeness—Political influence in the navy—Intimidation—Narrow-mindedness, 74—The greatest happiness principle discovered—Monomania—Legal research—English agricultural labourers, 91. American newspapers—Rich and poor—Luxury of wealthy states—Bribery of servants—Clearness of the sea at the North Cape, 92. Bishop Philpotts—Formation of a musical ear, 122. Slavery and cruelty—Powerful tones of birds—Hearing of animals—The gentleman—Soundings—Barking of dogs—Marvellous case of catelepsy, 123. Napoleon and Sir Hudson Lowe—A parson with a conscience, and his bishop—A prairie—Effect of high salaries—Progress of science—Church robbery, 138. The reading public—Betsy Cains, 139. Characters of passion and imagination—The Rev. Robert Hall, 155. Standing armies and long parliaments—Errors of opposites of evils—Hearing to the blind—Imitation of nature—Talleyrand—Chinese badges—Duchatelet v. Burdett, 156. The vivandières—Mirabeau and his brother—Instruction of the French army—Talleyrand—Apparitions—Hertford election committee—Mothers and their offspring, 171. Anecdote of Sully—Tithes, 172. Finery—An impossibility—Figaro in London—The established dinner party, 187. Dr. Arnott's new invention, 202. The objects of ambition—Destruction of children—Bold attempts—Pulpit pleasantry—Royal tastes—Quackery, 203. The factory system—Tax on cleanliness—Early genius of Byron—Just indignation—London in July, 220. Inns and public houses, 221. Exclusion of the multitude—Education—The safety lamp—The fear, honour, and obey plan of education—Handel—The Egyptian physician, 231. Necessities of office—Tooth-drawing—Iron houses—Whigs and Tories, 251. Taking care of those who at the worst take the best care of themselves, 252. The sabbath of the aristocrats—Northcote, 268. A rapid decline—A kind hint—Vice versa—Simeon Stylites—Gas-lights, 299. Taste in figure heads, 300. The croaker and the carper, 315. The dull cold shade of aristocracy—Odd mode of conversion—How to obtain a bishopric—The radicals—The two sets of Roées—Translation—An intriguant; a Lord Brougham—St. Anthony, 316.—An alternative for a scape-grace, the army or the church—Good society, 317. Ventilation of bed-rooms—Alteration of opinions—A duchess's daughter and a duchess proper—Patience of the poor—Croker's ill-breeding—Spirit duties—A ball, 332. American pride in English origin, 333. Goëthe—The pride of poverty—Dignity of a republic—National enmity—The mother, 363. A poker's end—Irish landlords—Rank, 364. "Those evening bells"—The convenience of having no property in self—Indian epicureanism—A lesson for wits—Scott's best—Disgraceful court perquisites—Strained characters—Beneficial application of capital—Mrs. Gore—Descriptive music—Registering operations—Rossini, 380. Bank scenery on the Essequibo—The late Mr. Northcote—Sir John Soane—Wisdom in stones—The Cayman of Guiana—Accumulating power, 395. Exercise for health—The solar system—Genius—Practical men, 411. National education—Enormous dimensions of comets—Luxurious angling, 412. The West India project—Progress of civilization in Algiers—Pecuniary qualification—Circumstances conducive to drunkenness in the labouring classes—Goëthe—Advice to reformers—Paid representatives, 427. Fancy fairs—A promising youth—Unpaid labour—Evidence for the Agnewites—Modern aspect of Constantinople—Ignorance of public men, 459. Female education—Mismanagement of the poor—Hysteria—A constitutional case—Beneficial effects of reducing and equalizing the tax on coffee—Caution to mothers, 474. Mr. Macaulay—The queen's ball and the House of Commons—Teachers in national schools—A mystery at Bamburg—The constitutional balance, 492. Encouragement of enterprize—Barbarous American prejudice against men of colour—A Portuguese mystery, 507. Margate—Public taste and servile criticism, 524. Profound elementary instruction for little children—Touching hereditary nobility—How to work a miracle—Errors of genius—Stupidity of managers—Canada, 555. Writing without ink—The benefactors of mankind usually unpopular during their lives—A sick lion and his jackalls—Miss Austen and Sir W. Scott, 570. A bouncer, 586. Property the root of English morals—Patronage of the arts by our aristocracy, a false pretence—Horrors of war—Debating in New Orleans, 587. The instinctive love of nature—Military costume, 602. Navigation—Single desolateness, 603. Monomania—An open aristocracy worse than even a close one—Irish poverty—The beauty of appropriation—Birmingham steam carriage—Parochial tyranny—Character of Cobbett by the editor of the Black Book, 618. Delusion cured by reasoning—Dr. Clarke's directions to his son for avoiding contagion—Burns—Property in land—The case of Jurien, 619. On the scriptural authority for tithes—Byron's variety of character—Patronage of the Fine Arts, 633. An Englishman's home, 634. Advancement and merit—Trees and shrubs that will flourish near the sea—Distress, 663. The death of early genius—The eternal "now" of madness—Racing trim—A match in the mud—Decent clothing—Sinking system at sea—The dancing girls, 682. Root of the prejudice against foreigners, 683. The sky—National schools—Practical men—The British thief—Antipathy to innovation, or to the trouble of learning—The sense of the Lords—A man of facts—The American navy, 695. The sources of wealth—Ridicule, 696. A Mahometan exquisite—Bread before banking—The corn laws—Patronage explained—The clergy—The incorrigibles—The theatres of Italy, 710. Mrs. Inchbald and Madame de Stael—War—The sources of title—An affair of honour—The progress of knowledge—Who is she?—Hindoo prejudices—Naval punishments, 730. Old age in Hindostan—The hot winds of India—Difficulty of providing for children of a certain class in English society, 746. The Outa snake—Fidelity of an elephant—The fossil ship—The voice of old Paris, 759. The sea, 774. The Greek anthology—The word "Fudge."—Hannah More—The words better and the words worse for wear, 775. The art of war, 790. Free labour more profitable than forced, 791. The innocent amusements of the poor—Escape of the guilty, 806. Correspondence between Henry III. and his tailor and grocer—Game laws of the twelfth century—Prices of provisions during the twelfth century—The steam coffee pot—Duty of instructing the people, 821. Probable results of the slave emancipation act—The chamelion—Character of Geo. IV. when Prince Regent, 822.

O'Connell, Cobbett's portrait of, 170.

PARLIAMENT.—Opening of parliament—Election of Speaker, 71. The King's speech—The address, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89. Report on the address, 103. Taxes on knowledge, 86, 327, 504. Business of the house, 87. Bribery, 87, 105. Lunacy bill—Disturbances in Ireland, 102. Irish church, 104, 105, 167, 184, 216, 217, 295, 311, 326, 391, 392, 406, 407, 424, 438, 439, 453, 454, 469, 470, 486, 490. Naval appointments—Mr. Pease—Municipal corporations—Naval and military sinecures, 105. Grand jury laws (Ireland), 119, 153, 216, 440. Coercion (Ireland) bill, 118, 134, 135, 136, 151, 152, 153, 167, 168, 183, 184, 185, 200, 201, 215. Partial taxation, 118. Treasury interference in elections, 120. Breach of privilege, 120, 357. Assessed taxes, 120. Business of the house, 120. Merchant tailors' company—Public health—The public accounts—Lighthouses—Votes of the members, 120. Corporations, 121. Tithes, and clerical patronage of the Lord Chancellor, 134. Poor laws for Ireland. 134, 216, 280. The factory system, 135. Factory bill, 153, 217, 246, 391, 425, 456, 505, 518, 519. Liverpool election, 153, 167. New house of commons—Distribution of the army, 153. Stafford election, 167. Dramatic performances bill, 167. Burgh reform (Scotland), 168. Education (Ireland), 182. Distress of the country, 184. Local courts bill, 197, 390, 391, 405, 406, 438. British Museum, 198. Reduction of expenditure and taxation—Navy estimates, 198, 246. Property tax, 199. Army estimates, 200, 281. Libel law—Parochial registration—Ministerial changes, 200. Court of Chancery, 216. Sir John Soane's museum bill, 216. Southampton election—Hertford election, 216. Norwich election—Military torture, 217. Coventry election 218. Common law expenses bill—Juvenile offenders—Criminal law—Church establishment, 246. Jewish emancipation, 247, 407. Proclaiming of Kilkenny—Commutation of tithes, 247. Sinecures—The budget, 248. Stafford witness indemnity bill—Corporation abuses, 262. Monetary system: general distress, 262, 263, 264. Separatists, 264. The ballot, 265, 278. Malt duty, 266. Ministerial difficulties, 279. Advertisement duty, 280, 296. Supply, 279, 297, 490, 520. House and window taxes, 279, 504. Crown lands—Savings' banks annuities bill—General registration—Police offices bill, 296. Lord Teynham, 310. Corn laws, 310, 313. Negro slavery, 311, 314, 358, 360, 374, 375, 406, 470, 471, 472, 487, 490, 504, 517, 535. Warwick election—National convention—Irish court of exchequer—Sir R. Peel—Lord's day observance bill, 312. Coleraine election, 313. Metropolitan police bill, 326. Bank charter, 326, 344, 409, 423, 424, 490, 505, 535, 536, 549. Pensions—House and window tax—Bristol election—The reform bill—Jewish emancipation—Judicial appointments—Hertford election—The ballot, 327. Contract debts, 343. Foreign policy—Portugal, 357, 359. Welsh church, 358. Factory commission, 358, 359. Tithes in Ireland, 359, 375, 377, 390. Labour rate bill, 373, 390, 503. Limitation of actions bill, 374. Sir Thomas Trowbridge, 374, 375. Counsel to prisoners—Dwelling-house robbery bill, 375. Inquest on Cully, 376, 377. East India Company's charter, 376, 378, 422, 440, 441, 455, 456, 457, 502. Unions and seditious publications, 389. Quakers and Moravians affirmation bill, 390. The reform bill—Elective franchise—Corn laws—Lord's day observance in Scotland, 391. General registration, 392. Roman catholic marriages (Ireland) bill, 407. Police spies, 407, 422. Political unions—Newspapers—The post office, 408. Agricultural labourers employment bill, 422. Thellusson's estate bill, 422, 439, 452, 469, 489. Redemption of the national debt, 423. Tithes (Ireland), 424, 502, 504, 519, 550. London university, 424. Chancery Regulation bill—English tithe commutation bill, 439. Lord's day observance bill—Poland—Russia and Turkey—Irish absentees—Case of Captain Robinson, 440. The Middlesex magistrates, 441. Capt. Napier, 452. Portugal, 453, 455, 486, 502, 504. The King's Letter to the Bishops, 453. Surrey magistrates and grand jury—Middlesex sessions—Police spies—Call of the house, 454. Sinecures, 455. Church of Scotland—Decean prize money, 456. Duration of parliaments, 470. Sugar refining, 471. Dramatic performances bill, 472, 487. Breach of privilege—The third versus the fourth estate, 472, 487, 504. Jewish civil disabilities bill, 486. National education — Taxation and expenditure, 488. Deccan prize money—Middlesex magistrates—Equalization of sugar duties — Corporations, 489. Grand juries (Ireland) bill, 490. Sir John Key, Bart., 502. Police spies.—Stafford disfranchisement—The post office: opening of letters—Foreign enlistment act, 503. Coventry election, 504. Metropolitan police acts, 505. Scotch burgh bill, 517. The Dudley magistrates—National gallery, 518. Unstamped papers—Buckingham palace, 519. Impressment of seamen, 520. Prussian tariff—Sinecures, 521. Separatists' affirmation bill—China trade bill—Municipal corporations, 535. Tithes stay of suits bill, 536, 537, 550. Chancery offices bill, 537, 550. Warwick election, 549, 551. Prorogation, 550. Foreign affairs, 551.

Parnell, Sir H., 90.
Parochial gas-lighting, 585.
Parochial misgovernment, St. Pancras, 56.
Perceval, Spencer, 219.
Physicians, college of, 411.
POETRY.—Ode to Sir Francis, 116. Alas! poor country! 163. A duet, 251. Reform, a song colloquial, 261. Don't you wish you may get it, 293. Negro rhymes, 309. Some precious advice to Mr. O'Connell, 485. Instructions to an architect, 491. Admiral Napier, 500. Royal chit chat—French Politeness, 597. The Spirit of Hampden, 627.

INDEX.

Poison, sale of, 820.

Police.—A masquerade—Josh. Hudson—The unstamped papers, 11. Charge of manslaughter, 12. A fourth profession—Curious case—A dummy, 28. Ingenious forgery—Alleged cruelty, 42. An alleged accessory to suicide—Proceedings against a gaming-house—Shoplifting by a tradesman's wife—Injustice in deference to royalty, 43. Alleged parental cruelty, 58. Miss Taylor's lover—Mr. Pearson for an assault, 59. An extraordinary ambassador—A "Tartuffe" in humble life, 75. Charge of assault against medical students—Law of suicide, 93. A pauper swindler, 108, 124. Ingenious Fraud—Bigamy, 108. Attempt to assassinate Mr. Mellish, 124, 139, 156. Theatrical Fracas, 124. An assault by the police—Aristocratics, 140. Daring thieves, 156. James Blackburn charged with forgery, 172. Mr. Bings for an assault, 173. Extensive forgeries on the Bank of England—High life below stairs—Reform of the police offices, blackguardism from the bench, 188. Committal of Richard Coster and Edmund Smith for forgery—Pleasures of drinking—Tricks in the milk trade—Charge against Lord W. Lennox, 203. Charge against Lady Littledale—Parish marriage—A sound decision—Magisterial license to steal—Magisterial license to commit an assault, 204. Sacrilege, 235. Pauper impostors—Ruffianism—Charge of felony against Capt. Gronow, M.P.—Charges of corruption against the police, 236. Impudent burglary, 253. Affair of honour—Juvenile depravity, 268. Charge of horse-stealing—Book-stealing—Extraordinary outrage, 284. A rising genius—Novel motive for a robbery, 301. The murder at Chelsea, 317, 333. Adulteration of tea, 318. Surrender of Mee, chairman of the Spafields' meeting—A brute, 333. Love unreturned—Case of Dorah Butler—Rich and Poor—The Coldbathfields' meeting—The murder at Chelsea, 348. Ingenious and extensive forgery—Charge against W. J. Bankes, Esq., M.P., 364, 412. Peg Graham—Miss Taylor's lover, 381. Thieving an unprofitable trade—Mary Bond, 396. A brute—Strike amongst the sawyers—Cruelty to animals, 397. Charge against Davis, a Welch drover—Shoplifting—Robbery at the London Institution, 412. Forgeries on the Bank of England, 443. Refusal of a large fare by an omnibus conductor—Case of Mrs. Murray, 460. Affiliation, 461. An infant vagrant—The bastardy laws—Begging letters, 475. Rev. Robert Taylor—Appalling case of misery, 493. Tailor's cabbage, 508. The loss of a colt's tooth, 509. An extraordinary invention, 540. Theft by chimney-sweeps—Robbery by a field-preacher, 555. Charge against Thomas Cox Savory, 555, 571. Grand juries, 556. Miss Fanny Kemble's lover—The poor laws, 556, 572, 588, 667, 827. The old watch, 603. Prepared British leaf, 603, 619, 634, 651. The cook and the blackbird—Case of fortune-telling, 604. Charge against Mr. Barnes, 619. A church robber, 620, 651. A peace-breaking magistrate, 620. Charge against a watch-maker—A queer defence—A candidate for transportation—Miss Taylor's lover—Irish paupers, 634. Shoplifting by a lady—Threatening letters to Mr. Stanley—Provincial police, 635. Maternal affection, 651. A young incendiary, 666, 684. Mr. Tilt and Mr. Turner, the artist, 666. Corporation privileges—The condition of a convict preferred to that of a soldier—Disturbing a congregation, 667. Begging letters, 683. Taxes on Knowledge—Henry Berthold—Rev J. I. Abrahams—Felix Roy, 684. Gwynn for swindling, 698, 714. John Minter Hart—The Earl of Burlington's assessment, 698. A man punished for his defence—Herr Cline, 699. Trades' unions—The old watch—A lady plundered in a gaming-house—An aristocratic recruit, 715. Emigration to the Cape of Good Hope, 731. A Jeremy Diddler—Cupboard love, 732. A threatening letter—A case for Mr. Wm. Tooke—A knave in disguise detected, 747. Credulity, 748. Capt. Ross and his crew—Poor laws' administration—Workhouse inmates—Magisterial power, 762. Kidnapping a young man—John Minter Hart—Parish relief, 778. Hocussing, 774, 794. Destitution—Fortune-telling, 779. The charge of kidnapping a young man—Extraordinary robbery, 793. Superstition and cruelty, 794. False characters—Daring burglary, 810. Blaspheming an alderman—Omnibus outrage, 827.

Political Examiner.—A key to the ballot question, 1. Logic of the Times—The ministry, 2. Presidency and monarchy—The mote in our brother's eye and the beam in our own—Observance of the Sabbath, 3 The electoral process in the United States—The working of the reform act, 4. Observance of the Sabbath, 17. Church reform in Ireland, 18. The President's message—Obstruction of justice by the King's troops—Necessity of revising the present system of taxation, 19. Infant labour in factories—The age of reason—Open voting in close confinement, 20. Rogue-making and law making, 33. A lark—The Marplot policy—Designs against Ireland—The Scotch peers, 34. Ministerial manifestoes, 49. Taxes on knowledge, 34, 82, 484. Morality of the rich and poor—The Tories on good behaviour—Errors and truths on a property tax, 51. The first scene of the reformed parliament, 65. The minority—Prophecy—Lord Althorp a theorist, 66. Advice collusive—Rumours respecting Mr. O'Connell—Sour grapes—Internal reforms of the Commons, 67. War with Ireland, 81. Clerical charity; or, organic disease of the heart, 82. Representation of London, 83. Scrip, 83, 99, 115, 131, 147, 163, 179, 195, 212, 227, 244, 260, 275, 291, 307. Thieves and receivers, 83. Equal assessment equal to abolition, 84. Irish church reform, 97. Economy of the reformed Commons, 98. Seizure of a family Bible, 99. The despotism for Ireland, 113. Partial taxation, 114. A representative of his breeches pocket, 115. The pleas for a tyranny, 129. Military outrages—The tyranny, 131. Drum-head justice, 145. On seats—Whimsies of Mr. Cobbett, 146. The case made our own, 148. The present discontents in Ireland anticipated, 149. The yielding of ministers, 161. Legislatorial wisdom on the Irish coercion bill—Marylebone election, 162. The drumstick, 177. A warning to ministers—The distress of the country—Jewish disabilities, 178. Bribery and Sabbath-breaking, 179. Important state paper, 180. The opening of the tea trade, 186. Hopelessness of relief, 193. Mr. Hume and the sinecures—Ministerial changes—The last inconsistency, 194. Case of Captain Robinson, 195. The pharisees bill for the observance of the Sabbath, 209. Flogging in the army—Infant labour in factories, 210. Lordly legislation—Criminal justice, 211. Negro intellect, 212. The present parliament, 225. The Gloucester election—The ministry, the press, and the peers—Kilkenny proclaimed, 226. Jury versus Judge, 227. The tea trade, 228. Demoralization of slavery and its barbarities, 241. Pay and plurality of the judges, 242. Examination of the accused—Vexatious application of the coercion act—A robbery in parliament—Severity of punishment, 243. Protection refused to electors, 257. Mr. Attwood's motion—The budget, 258. Defeat of the ministry—Justice, 259. The national horrors, 260. The late votes, 273. The house-tax—Resignation of Sir J. Hobhouse, 274. Confiscation scheme of "the Times"—Signs of the times, 275. The Irish church bill—The justice which is criminal, 289. The Edinburgh Review on the assessed taxes, 290. Sir J. Hobhouse's fall, 291. Abolition of slavery—Aristocratics—The Milton fishermen in Chancery, 292. The project for slavery, 305. The Coldbath-fields meeting—The new artillery, 306. Aristocratics and ploutocratics, 307. Unequal pressure of the present duties of consumption on the different classes of society, 308. The ministerial riot at Coldbath-fields, 321. Defeat of the motion for the repeal of the assessed taxes, 322. The ministry and the alarming aspect of things—The mercy of the crown, 323. Assertions against facts and facts against assertions—A prophecy, — The weaver, 324. Objections to the Irish church bill, 325. The alleged commercial distress, 328. The emancipation scheme, 337. Inquisition on Cully quashed, 338. Mercy of the crown—The Irish church bill, 339. Corruption of youth, 340. The house of mischief, 353. The art of bamboozling—A handsome apology—Tory and radical coalition—Fair compensation—Consistency, 354. The church temporalities bill, 355, 387, 404, 436. The despotism of the Lords—The West India bubble, 369. Abuse of the coercion bill, 370. Fraudulent promotion—The Spafields' outrage, 371. Mr. Buxton and the slave question, 372. Party politics—Some apology for the truckling of ministers, 385. The perils of the state—The factory commission—Reforms in the law, 386. The East India project, 388. The Commons representative not of the people but the Lords—Political unions, 401. Party contradictions—The police, 402. The twenty millions to the slave owners—Lord Ellenborough, 403. The reformed House of Commons, 404. The ministerial measure respecting the Bank, 417. Protection of manufactures, 418. National obligations—The Spafields affair—What is to be done with the House of Commons, 419. The improvable and the incorrigible—The pharisees' Sunday, 420. Malpractices in the post-office, 421. The Lords and the ministry—The debate on the local courts' bill, 433. War and taxes, 434. Poor laws—Partial legislation, 435. The pharisees' Sabbath bill, 436. Sham reform of the sinecure church, 449. Economy of ministers, 450. Corporate property—Case of the sugar refiners, 451. Short parliaments, 465. The clerical sinecures—The emancipation bubble, 466. Mr. O'Connell and the press, 467. The Lords again—Freedom of opinion in the United States, 481. The Edinburgh Review's defence of the assessed taxes—The press and Mr. O'Connell, 482. An editorial favour—Shabby tricks of the ministry—Mr. Roebuck on national education, 483. Equitable adjustment, 484. Municipal institutions, 497. Trade in blood—Case of Sir John Key, 498. The employment of spies—Next year—Libel law, 499. Impressment for poor sailors, and sinecures for aristocrats, 513. The bank charter bill, 514. Promotion and merit, 515. Popay and the police, 529. Stamp-office reformation—Magistrates versus beer, 530. Rapacity of the clergy, 545. The King's speech, alias the minister's praise of himself, his measures, and his friends—Case of Sir John Key, 546. Apprehension of a clergyman for looking singularly—Lord Warwick, 547. Lord John Russell and the reform bill—Fees, 548. A fragment from the first book of Judas—Education of the people, 561. Loss of the Amphitrite—The press and the Tories—A new exaction for the clergy, 562. The old watch and the new police, 563. A significant difference—Great news, 564. The press and the stamp duties, 577. Matter for a ministerial manifesto—Foxes without tails—The incorporation bill—The history of the ministerial hotch potch, 578. The pot and the kettle—The Middlesex magistrates, 579. Conduct of Consul Hamilton at Boulogne, 579. 612, 627, 661. The conduct of the press, 580. The established church, 531, 564, 580, 739. Beware of nostrums, 581. Motives to the cure of souls, 582. The ministerial manifesto, 593. The prince of darkness—Partition of property—A cheap press—The French and English compared—The abominations of the assessed taxes, 595. The official report of the loss of the Amphitrite—Ministerial faith—The reform act registration, 596. Anti-social effects of despotisms, 597. A job for the benefit of Lord Ellenborough and the Duke of Grafton — Benefit of clergy, 598. The marvellous ministry, 609. Licentiousness of the bench—A trick defeated, 611. Much ado about nothing—Alarming decrease in the constituency, 612. Increase of forgery—The military spirit—Joint stock associations, 613. The review of the session continued, 625. The Mayoralty—Resistance to the assessed taxes, 626. Example—The Lord Chancellor's opinion of the present parliament—Vexations under the assessed taxes, 627. The King, the Bishop of Hereford, and Lord Grey, 641. The bread-tax—Conduct under criticism—The established church illustrated, 642. Ostentation of simplicity—Misreporting—Lord Brougham's law reforms, 643. Whig apostasy—Barbarous conduct of the captain of the Earl of Wemyss, 644. Ministers and the assessed taxes—More disfranchisement, 657. Laws for the protection of passengers by sea and land—Judge and jury versus Justice Chambers, 658. Station—The fall of a pier—The Corporation bill, 659. The citizen king, 660. The Amphitrite and Mr. Hamilton, 661. Whig prosecutions for libel, 673. Holding with the hare and running with the hounds—Distraint for the assessed taxes resisted, 674. Signs of the popularity of ministers—Conduct of the ministry with respect to the poor laws, 675. Blowing hot and cold—The registration blunders, 676. Lord Durham's speech, 689. Military tyranny, 690. Encouragement of Tom and Jerryism—A weak contrivance of the enemy, 691. Aristocratic education, 705. Rumoured intention of ministers as to the assessed taxes—Who is the traitor?—A good one! (i. e. king or bounce.)—Conduct of the ministry with respect to the post-office department, and the payment of officers by fees, 706. The inquiry into police riot at Spafields—Whig jobbing and Tory jobbing—Management of the British Museum, 707. Mr. Macaulay's defence of the ministry at Leeds, 721. R. M. Beverley, Esq.—The value of a voucher exemplified, 724. Joint stock banking, 726. The justifiableness of prosecution under the existing libel law considered—Punishment without specified offence, 737. Mr. Shiel and Mr. Hill —Case of the "Brighton Guardian"—Refusal of corporations to submit to detection, 738. The orangemen of Ireland—The prosecution of the Pilot, 739. The provincial magistracy, 740. The bench and the magistracy—The spiritual claims of the church—Prosecutions under the libel law, 753. American notion of aristocratic behaviour—Sir Edward Codrington and Mr. Woolcombe, 754. West Indies—Law for the rich and law for the poor, 755. The prosecutions—Anti-corn law combination, 769. The fudge case—Mr. Macaulay's appointment—The unpaid—Church and kitchen, 770. The police, 771. Church reform, 774. Again Mr. Chambers, 785. The nobility and gentry in danger—Case of the True Sun—Disuse of the ballot in the Common Council, 786. Sir Peter Laurie and the city sages—Huddersfield election—The eight hours' work for twelve hours' wages project, 787. Grand juries—Law of treason, 788. The Globe on the ballot, 801. Imputations of murder with and without fudge—A question for the Tories, 802. Mr. Sadler—Expulsion of the bishops from the Lords—Mr. Sadler and Mr. Foster, 803. Who is the slanderer? 804. Ministerial intentions, 807. The harangues of the ministers, 817. Mr. Hill and the Irish members—Church reform, 818.

Poor law commission, 90. Extract from report, 362.

Portsoken ward, 411.

Portugal, the queen of, 586, 601.

Post-office, 825.

Post-office mysteries, 154. Jobbery in newspapers, 409, 410.

Priestley, Dr., centenary of the birth of, 202.

Punishment, excessive severity of, 693.

Record job, 298.

Reform: letter from a French to an English reformer, 35.

Retrenchment, opportunity for, 73.

Revenue, 8, 23, 220, 425, 649.

Ross, Captain, expedition in search of, 121.

Royalty, cares of, 345.

Savings' banks, 809.

Savory, Mr., case of, 679.

Scales, Mr. Alderman, and Whitechapel parish, 329.

Scales, Mr. Alderman, and the Court of Aldermen, 681, 693.

Secret designs as to great questions, 38.

Sheriffs' courts, 809.

Smith, Dr. Southwood; his lectures on the animal economy, 132.

Stanley, Mr., 9.

St. Simonian mission in London, 697, 713.

Steam omnibus, 267.

Sugden, Sir E., his chancery practice, 729.

Swan, James, the case of, 25.

Tait, Mr. Wm. and the annuity tax, 523.

Temperance societies, 568.

Theatrical Examiner—Adelphi—Henriette, and the King of Clubs, 23. The Bravo, 102. Yates' and Reeves' Lenten Entertainment, 133. Henriette, 182. Address from Mr. Yates, 215. Mathews' Comic Annual, 278. The Soldier's Wife, 295. Lekinda, the Sleepless Woman, 629. Grace Huntley, 662. P. P., or the Man and the Tiger, 678. The Deserted Village, 692. The Butterfly's Ball, 742, 790. The Rake and his Pupil, 758, 790.

Astley's Amphitheatre—Mazeppa, 534.

Covent Garden Theatre—Nell Gwynne, 23. The Smuggler's Boy, 85. Young Kean in the Iron Chest, 117. The Israelites in Egypt, 133. Reputation, 150. The Kentuckian, 166. The Coiners, or the Soldier's Oath, 196. The Elfin Sprite, 230. The Wife: a Tale of Mantua, 261. Pizarro, and My Neighbour's Wife, 647. The Ferry and the Mill, 678. Gustavus the Third, 727. Scan. Mag., 774. Mother Hubbard and her Dog, 820.

Drury Lane Theatre—The Nervous Man, 71. Don Juan, 84. La belle au bois dormant, 101. The Maid of Cashmere, 182. La Somnambule, 294, 343. The German Opera, 343. The Students of Jena, 357. The Tempest, 646. Prince Lee Boo, 692. A Soldier's Courtship, 774, 789. Secrets worth Knowing, 789. St. George and the Dragon, 821.

English Opera.—Philip of Anjou, 230. The Mummy, 357. The Yeoman's Daughter, 452. Lo Zingaro, 501. Nero, 534. Jesse, the Flower of Dumblaine, 549. The Court Masque, 582.

Haymarket Theatre.—John Bull and Open House, 230. Ellen Wareham, 261. Rip Van Winkle, 310. The Beggar's Opera, 373. My Wife's Mother, 422. The Housekeeper, or the White Rose, 452. Nicolas Flam, 486. Pyramus and Thisbe, 516. Miss E. Paton, 567. Swamp Hall, or the Friend of the Family—The Beggar's Opera, 583. Love in a Village, 661. Artaxerxes and My Uncle John, 662.

King's Theatre.—La Cenerentola, 117. La Donna del Lago, 133. Matilde di Shabran, 150. Der Freyschutz, 181. Le Nozze di Figaro, 196. Fidelio, 230. Il Barbiere—Il Pirata, 245.—Zampa, 260. Anna Bolena, La Cenerentola, and Flore, 278. Medea and Nathalie, 294. Anna Bolena, Tancredi, and Il Pirata, 342. Ines de Castro, 357. Il Barbiere di Siviglia—Il Don Giovanni—Norma, 389. Taglioni's benefit, 421. Benefit of Mdlles. Teresa and Fanny Elsler, 438. Tamburini's benefit, 468. Termination of the season, 516.

Olympic Theatre.—The Old Gentleman—The Paphian Bower, 6. Madame Vestris and Mr. Liston, 26. All's Right, the Water Party, and P. Q., 54. Promotion, 117. A Match in the Dark, 133. Address from Madame Vestris, 215. Look at Home—High, Low, Jack, and the Game, 629. Paired Off, 692. Beulah Spa, 742. Hush Money, 758, 774. Fighting by Proxy, 790. The Welsh Girl, 806.

Pavilion Theatre.—Goosey Goosey Gander, 23.

Queen's Theatre.—The Adventures of a Bush-ranger, 422. The Sea, 615.

Sadler's Wells, 54.

Strand Theatre.—Miss Kelly's reminiscences, 54. His first champagne, 647.

Surrey Theatre.—Jonathan Bradford—Damon and Pythias, 599.

Victoria Theatre.—Who would be married? and Is it a woman? 630. The wife, 708.

Thomson's, Mr. Poulett, speech to the Manchester electors, 6.

Tithes, 583.

Tithes, petition against, from Ashurst, Kent, 7.

Trades unions and master manufacturers, 585, 649, 792, 809, 825.

Waithman, the late Alderman, 91. Pillar in memory of, 121, 410.

War in the East, 491.

Warwickshire election, 10.

Welch church, 219.

West Indian compensation, 214, 346.

Westminster election, 219, 298.

Wheat and bread in London and Paris, 712.

York, city, election, 729.

—Lord of the Manor's condition—Method of procedure in ribbon in dressing, 788. The ceremony of Tasseling—The tion of the Pole, 789. The procession of Tasseling—The and the marriage—The spousal dance at the cross—Ja cross the Maypole, 791. American notions of marriage—
Sir Rowan Colquhoun and Mr. Wemyss, 792. Well
Law for the rich and law for the poor, 793. The judge cum (or possible) 793. The judge cum—Mr. Lawson politics—The magistrate—Lord Kinnaird and Lord Rosebery, 794.
Canada scheme, 795. Again Mr. Chamberlain, 796. Mr. Balfour ready to depart—Lord of the Tow Sun—Lord Rosebery Coronation Contract, 798. Mr. Tyrrell's Lambs and the old cop—Hist derived elections—The cross Bench, work for the cross Bench peers, 800. Grand judges—Law of dreams, 801. The Queen on the Bailiff, 802. Impudence of number with an exception—A tion for the Tories, 803. Mr. Balfour—Expulsion of Mr. Lawson
the Lords—Mr. Balfour and Mr. Lyttelton, 804. Mr. Balfour's
804. Mr. Balfour's amendment, 805. The Bill as it is—Clerical
806. Mr. Balfour and the Irish members—Obstructed, 807.
Thor law courts soon, 50. Ancient Irish royal seat.
Ignorance social, 111.
Dying, at the grave of 380, 101.
Footballing, 833.
Footballing in Ireland, 111. Jubilee in Westgate, 416, 416.
Fitzroy, Lt., wounding of the Duke of, 302.
Fumbling, carving, activity of, 623.

Hazard job, 328.
Hebron, letter from a Jewish lady in an English school, 36.
Hibernicus, [illegible] 73.
Hawaiian, 9, 36, 120, 425, 440.
Hose, Charles, expedition to search of, 121.
Hogarth, [illegible] 445.

Sailing, Irish, 109.
Haven, Mr., [illegible] of, 273.
Sadler, Mr. Alderman, and Wilkinson [illegible], 329.
Sadler, Mr. Alderman, and the Court of Aldermen, [illegible], 2, 1.
Secret service as to great questions, 48.
Sharpe, [illegible] 445.
Smith, Dr. Sheridan; biologers on the animal economy, 122.
Sunday, Mr., 9.
St. Simonism—[illegible] in London, 107, 212.
Sunn [illegible] 252.
Sugden, Sir E., his character [illegible] 254.
Sun, Japan, [illegible] 43.

Tait, Mr. Vin, and the [illegible] tax, 424.
Temperance society, 366.
Tetrarchical Lexicon—Adverse—Illustrated under [illegible]
The Jesus, 103. Yates and Sewell, Lewis [illegible]
Ilkeston, 103. Address from Mr. Yates, 104. [illegible]
Annual, 174. The Schools, [illegible] 230. [illegible] the [illegible]
Vienna, 420. Grace Darling, 422. J. F. [illegible] the Sun and the Times, 675. The Dental [illegible] 691. The [illegible]'s Bill, 712.
720. The Hale and the Pugh, 720, 720.
Astley's Amphitheatre—Mazeppa, 324.
Covent Garden Theatre—New Orpheus, 92. The Sunday's Dog, 96. Young Mean in the Isle Cassy, 117. The Israelites in